

Dual Licensing Checklist

- IP Policy
- Bylaws
- Terms of Use
- Software User Agreement
- Update Manager Agreement
- Committer Agreements (Individual and Member) (*)
- Employer Consent Form ()
- Committer Guidelines ()
- Contribution Questionnaire ()
- “About” Templates (*)
- Default Copyright and License Notice (*)
- Guide to Legal Documents ()
- Development Process, including process notes and Review checklists ()
- All web pages where users gain access to Eclipse “channels” (bugzilla, wiki, newsgroup, mail lists, etc.) (*)
- Infrastructure enhancements to:
 - * ensure new committers have signed the agreements necessary for the projects they have rights for ()
 - * IPzilla and portal mods to ensure references to EPL now refer to “Terms of Use” ()

(*) Changes required. Changes completed

() Changes required, Changes to be completed

The Issue

- EclipseLink committers will be required to take great care to ensure that they do not copy code or otherwise create derivative works of EPL-only-licensed code from other projects.
- The onus will be placed on project leadership to ensure this is done.